

19 NICOLE
WYSE

Soror Nicole Wyse is the Associate Director of Community Development for the City of Detroit in Michigan. She is responsible for the Housing and Revitalization Department. She is a diligent, highly motivated professional with expertise in managing federal grant programs, especially through the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Highly engaged in HUD efforts, she has been responsible for annual programs that support Detroit residents, such as home repair, public infrastructure and public service programs for Detroit based non-profit organizations.

She maintains 15 years of diverse experience managing projects, neighborhood revitalization, reporting and compliance of federal grants, and developing policies and procedures. Soror Wyse conducts detailed analyses of complex functions and makes recommendations for process improvements. She maintains the ability to collaborate and communicate effectively with cross functional committees which has proven to be a positive impact.

20 AMBER
SCOTT-DISHMON

Soror Amber Scott-Dishmon is the current President and CEO at Turning Point Domestic Violence Shelter that serves six counties in Ohio, and she has more than sixteen years of non-profit experience in the areas of Domestic Violence, Opportunity Youth programming and Adult comprehensive case management services. She is a Certified instructor/facilitator through the internationally recognized Langevin Learning Center and certified to teach two nationally recognized workforce development curriculums. Equipped for the Future and Public Broadcasting (PBS) literacy link. She is also a Certified Professional Resume Writer (CPRW), Certified Life Coach (CLC) and Certified Goal Attainment Coach (CGAC). Soror Scott-Dishmon is an adult literacy instructor for internet-based learning in workplace essentials and GED connection. She is a proctor of the National Work Readiness Examination.

As a certified Family Development Specialist and Trainer with a focus on comprehensive consultation and effective transitioning practices, Soror Scott-Dishmon has experience administering adult and teen prevention programs. She has obtained a bachelor's degree in Pre-law with a minor in Criminal Justice and holds a master's degree in Adult Education and Curriculum Design. Soror Scott-Dishmon is enrolled in Capella University's School of Education doctorate program. She is member of The Professional Association of Resume Writers (PARW) and The National Association of Workforce Development Professionals (NAWDP).